Ken.

Well old buddy, just a few words from your friend who's read in everything including your letter. I wish you ~~and your future~~ and your future.

THE

I will soon be with you this summer and maybe go with you to Florida. Again Good luck to every thing.

LANCE

Your Buddy:
Rogers

Best wishes
Ken Miller

To a good knight,
And friend, who has always been true
May I wish you happiness
In everything you do.
Philip Morgan

Kenneth,
May you always have the best of everything. Don't ever forget the fabulous
Dr. Qab of the really beautiful great eye.
Be good.
Love you

Dedication

Upon you, Irie Leonard . . . principal, coach, and teacher . . . we, the students of Southern Pines School, bestow the Coat of Arms.

In selecting you for this honor, we feel that you embody the enduring courage and loyal spirit of a true Knight.

You have not only coached our football team into four state championship games, but you have been a faithful friend throughout our high school career and a stepping stone into our future life.

So here is to an inspiring teacher, an untiring coach, and a dedicated principal . . . the most outstanding Knight of all . . . Irie Leonard.

The Hi-Y is carried on in co-operation with the YMCA. The purpose of the club is to "Create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian Character."

The Southern Pines Hi-Y Club Members.

The Cheerleaders have added much spirit to our school. Led by Patti Hobbs, chief cheerleader, they have been able to give our teams an extra boost. The Majorettes have also been necessary to our school. Patti Britt, head majorette, along with the other majorettes, has entertained us with performances during the half-times. Both the Cheerleaders and majorettes have helped our teams win!

Mr. Lynn Ledden is the director of this group of talented students. The band has added much to our football games, parades, and other school activities.

Band
The Marching Blue Knights

Glee Club

The Glee Club is made up of students who are interested in and like music and singing. These students, under the direction of Mr. Roger Gibbs, have performed in our assemblies, and other school functions. A concert is also given each year. This means of developing talents in music is enjoyed by all.

Officers—Jim Bowden, President; Janice Holliday, Vice President; Jean Franklin, Secretary

Officers of the Masques

The Masque Club is composed of students interested in the work of the theater. Plays are presented by the club each year, which are enjoyed by all. Mrs. Joan Ripple is the sponsor of the club.

Beta Club

The Beta Club, sponsored by Miss Sallie Cowles, is a National Honorary Organization. It is open to Juniors and Seniors who achieve and maintain a high scholastic average.
